

How to Be a World Changer

Greg Laurie

Focus Walking with God is the key to being a world changer. As we abide in Him, believe in Him, and consistently obey Him, we will shine in front of the people in our world. This opens the door to change their world by sharing what changed ours.

Fun What is your favorite way to be active? Are you currently making time in your schedule for that?

Review Key Scriptures: Hebrews 11:5–6, 10:38; Genesis 5:21–24; Amos 3:3; 1 John 2:6; Jude 1:14–15; 1 Peter 3:15; 2 Timothy 2:24; Romans 2:4; Psalm 126:6; Hebrews 9:27; Revelation 3:4; 1 Corinthians 15:51–52

1. Enoch walked with God.

Walking with God speaks consistency. Enoch walked with God for 300 years. You can't walk with God if you don't start every day with time in His Word. Walking with God means continued obedience in the same direction.

2. Enoch was a witness for God.

Every Christian has a testimony—it's your story. Your testimony is one of the most effective tools in your evangelistic toolbox. The primary way God reaches nonbelievers is through verbal communication.

3. Enoch went to be with God.

Enoch was the exception to the rule; he didn't die. Those who think the most of the next world, do the most for this one. How many people can we take with us when we go?

*Group Dynamics Idea* What are some places in your life where you can love people and win them to God? Where do you see the greatest need in your sphere of influence? (Hint: If everyone you know is born again, you might need to expand your sphere.) Over the next two weeks, look for places to love people and win them, and share the results with the group!

Discuss

1. “Can two walk together unless they be agreed?” What are some areas in your life where you feel the Holy Spirit prompting you to get in harmony with Him?
2. Read John 15:7. What do you think it means to abide in Jesus and let His words abide in you? What does that look like in your everyday life?
3. Can you articulate your faith in three minutes or less? Let’s practice! What would you share with someone who asked you why you’re different?
4. Read 1 Corinthians 9:19–23. What does this passage say to you? Do you think it’s the responsibility of ALL believers to evangelize or just those who are called?
5. Colossians 3 says, “Set your mind on things that are above.” What are some ways we can practice that? What does it mean to be heavenly minded?

Take Home As we conclude, remember the following:

- Walking with God means continued obedience in the same direction. Don’t get discouraged if you feel like you aren’t moving fast enough. This is a walk, not a sprint.
- We have the privilege of representing God here on this earth and showing others what a life lived with Him looks like! If you focus on building an intimate relationship with God, there is no way that won’t shine through to the people in your life. It’s magnetic. Just be ready to tell them about what makes you different.
- One day we will all “move to heaven.” But we can’t just focus on making sure we make it there. The objective should be on how many people can we take with us!

Prayer

Holy Spirit, please teach us to walk with You, to abide with You. Teach us how to live in a place of harmony with You and Your will. It's our greatest desire. As we learn to walk in harmony with You, please help us reach nonbelievers and share what we have been given. Thank you for giving us an intimate relationship with You, and please give us opportunities to help others get to know You the way we do. In Jesus' name, Amen.

*New Leader Tip* This is a great time to help your group members go deeper in the Word and in their relationship with God. Ask them to choose one spiritual habit they can start right now that will take them deeper in their walk with God. Encourage them to seek God's advice on which habit to choose.
